Voice of a Baby - Thanks Midwife for your Devotion

Laiba Asif

Year III Nursing Student, Aga Khan University School of Nursing & Midwifery

I remember the perplexing situation

When my mum was on station

She was having strong sensation

Frustration over frustration

Force me to amaze His creation

Thanks, midwife, for your devotion

Severe complaint of dilatation

Synto and CTG on consideration

Mum start gaining irritation

Frustration over frustration

Your words gave her motivation

Thanks, midwife for your devotion

Abrupt change of emotions

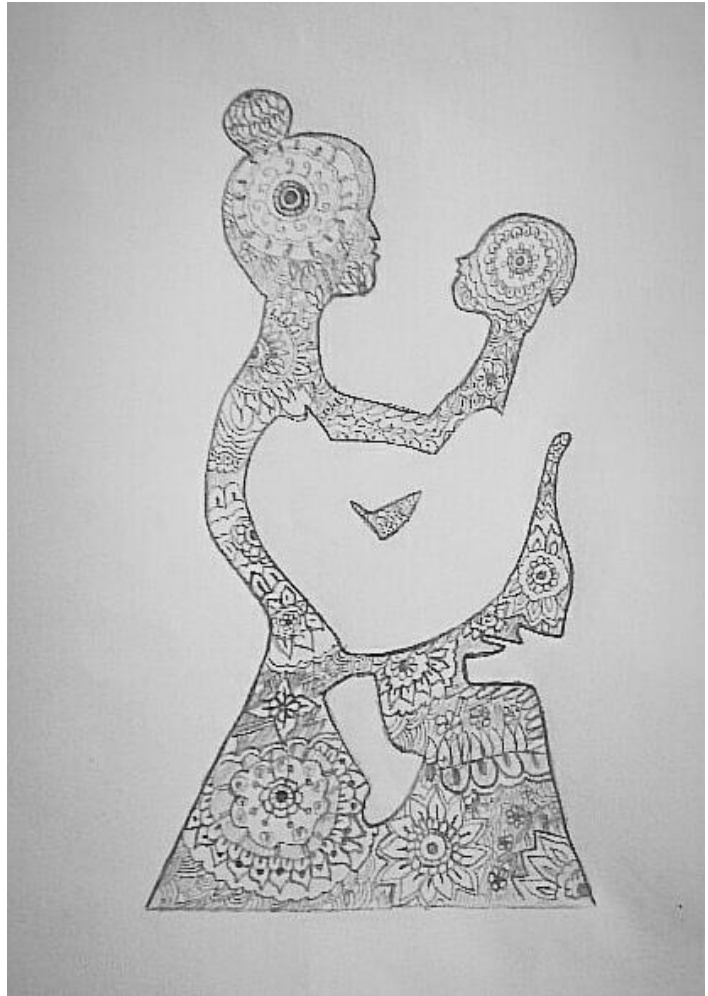

Force me for gratification

Frustration over frustration

But your healing hands brought us under protection

Gave us a soothing sensation

Thanks, midwife for your devotion
